

Scented Mayweed

An Overview of Its Characteristics and Uses

Your Name and Date

Introduction to Scented Mayweed

- • Scented Mayweed (Matricaria chamomilla) is a flowering plant in the Asteraceae family.
- • Commonly known as German Chamomile or Wild Chamomile.
- • Native to Europe and Western Asia, now found worldwide.

Characteristics of Scented Mayweed

- • Grows up to 60 cm tall.
- • Feathery leaves and daisy-like white flowers with yellow centers.
- • Blooms from May to October.
- • Has a distinct apple-like scent.